changing faces in the community through support and reliable information.

Family Service of the Piedmont is a private, nonprofit agency focused on empowering individuals and families to restore hope, achieve stability and thrive through quality support services, advocacy and education.

www.safeandhealthyfamilies.com

Fairview Family Resource Center

a program of Family Service of the Piedmont supported by The United Way of Greater High Point

Southside Recreation Center

401 Taylor Ave.
High Point, NC 27261

336-882-8907
What is the Fairview Family Resource Center?
The Fairview Family Resource Center (FFRC) is a program of Family Service of the Piedmont that is designed to provide community-based programs and services for families, children and individuals living in the Fairview Elementary School district.

The major goals of the FFRC are:
- Increase parenting skills
- Prepare neighborhood children to enter school mentally, physically, emotionally, and socially ready to learn
- Prepare neighborhood children to succeed in school and in the world-at-large mentally, socially and emotionally
- Increase parental involvement in their children’s school and educational needs
- Improve overall family functioning
- Increase access to community resources
- Create a safe and healthy environment within the community
- Foster a sense of self-sufficiency and empowerment in neighborhood children, parents, and adults.

What does it cost?
The programs and activities conducted at the FFRC are free. Referral to other services of Family Service of the Piedmont may incur a cost.

How are Children and Families Served?
The FFRC conducts a full range of educational programs and activities in the Fairview/Southside community for parents and children from birth to six, as well as youth and adults.

Programs of the FFRC include:
- The Incredible Years parenting group
- Youth Leadership Development
- Community Garden
- After school activities for school-age children
- Connection with resources
- Collaboration with High Point Public Library Technology Access Point (TAP)
- Youth computer literacy program
- Community workshops: home management, leadership skills, wellness and balance.
- Adult learning support

How do I participate in the program, activities or services?
Call the FFRC Program Manager at 882-8907 or visit the center. The FFRC is located inside the Southside Recreation Center, 401 Taylor Ave. (next to Fairview Elementary School).